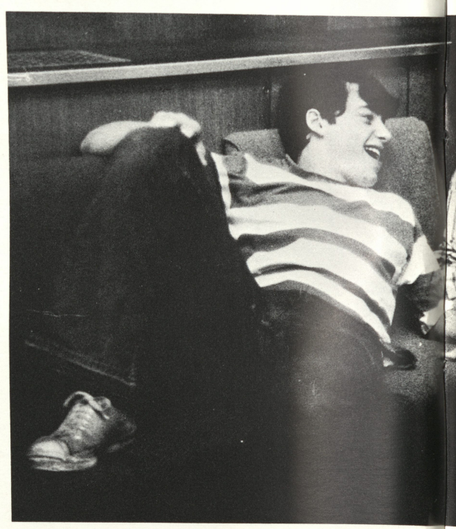
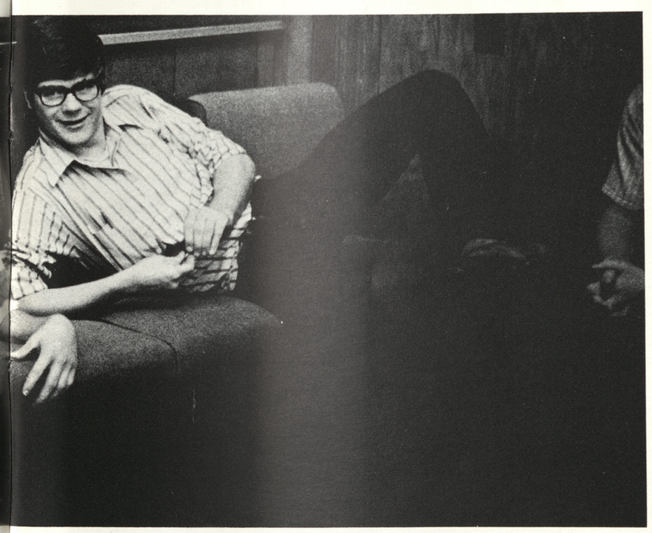
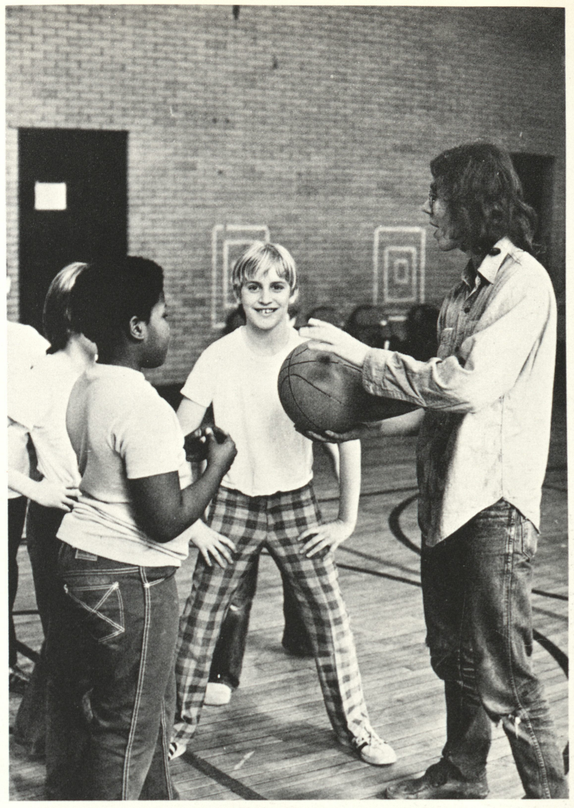
Activities range from ping pong to dancing while some studying is done. Music and news fill the air. Social climbing is seen all around. Hence, Tigers Den.





Teacher assistance proved to be a rewarding and worthwhile experience to those seniors who volunteered for the program. They assisted various teachers in the community by helping with class lessons and projects.



A loss to Brush on the gridiron did not dampen the enthusiasm of the 1971 homecoming extravaganza. Highlighted by an after game dance on Friday night and a semi-formal affair Saturday evening, the weekend was completed with the crowning of Marian Bontempo as Homecoming Queen and the awarding of first place to the outstanding Choir float.

Beth Brody, Cathi Buckland, and Debbie Greenberg sell tickets for the homecoming dance.

G.G.C. — M.C. had another typical year, harmonious in both music and organization. With Mr. William Thomas at the reins, they performed two hugely successful concerts as well as a spring vacation tour to Virginia. Each new endeavor helped strengthen the already tight bonds between the two groups. It was truly a year of wine and song for everyone involved.

With many Heights organizations faltering, it's always reassuring to know that there is still Choir. Once again, those mellow-mouthed music-makers had a very successful season. Led by Dr. Clair T. McElfresh, Choir highlighted the year with highly touted fall and spring concerts and a tour to Virginia. Though a permanent institution at Heights, Choir still manages to come up with crisp new ideas each year. It's safe to say they'll be around for a long, long time.

Included in the various presentations were concerts with the choral groups and performances for children in the Cleveland Heights — University Heights school district. The highlights of the year were the participation in the State Orchestra Finals and the selection of two seniors, Ann Legow and Dave Lichtenstein, to the All-Ohio High Orchestra.

Mr. Zipay, band director

Pursuing "true southern culture" was one of the objectives of the Chaw Boss Club. The club's dedication toward chewing tobacco (chawin' tobacky) was reinforced by constant correspondence with various chewing tobacco firms. The Chaw Boss Club planned to leave several shares of stock in the Mailpouch Tobacco Co., of West Virginia as a legacy to Heights High.

The "Cribbers", members of the Cribbage Club, known throughout the school for their wild exploits during cribbage matches, play two and four-handed cribbage and graciously instruct new members in the philosophy and techniques of the game. And so, pegging its way to skunks, double skunks, and corners, the Cribbage Club lives and loves on.

Activities of the Miter Boxing Club have included Thursday evening Mass Debates, paper sales, and a performance at the Northeastern Ohio "Celebration of Life."

Two A.F.S. students visiting Heights undertook to become a part of our school this year. Marie Jansson from Sweden and Nida Suksvasti from Thailand studied, learned, and lived like Heights students for one year. The American Field Service Club of Heights High proved that a good organization can be produced with cooperation and ideas, letting the members have fun and friendship as well as a possibility of travel abroad.

Injured fullback Bob Turbow.

In what can only be described as a disappointing season and in spite of so many fine individual performances, the Heights Football Team finished the season with a 2-8 mark. Injuries to fullback Bob Turbow and two way starter Paul Deering added to the troubles of first year coach Carl Wilson. Heights' dropped the opening football game to defending state champ Massillon, followed by a heart-breaking loss to Valley Forge. This seemed to set the trend for the year as the team just couldn't get untracked. Two one-point losses to Shaker and Lakewood seemed to epitomize frustration encountered this year. In spite of setback after setback, the team will probably be remembered as one which never gave up or lost it's competition spirit.

There were superlative performances by guard Lee Thomas, tackle Rick Kovatch, and end Pete Vinocur, aas they were named to the L.E.L. offensive team. Other fine efforts included those of seniors Mike Siegel, Al Stallworth, and juniors Tom Wasson and Mike Stallworth.

Posting a record of nine wins, no losses, The Heights Tennis Squad breezed through their schedule and claimed the L.E.L. tennis championship for Heights for the second straight year. En route to victory the netters lost but three individual matches, all in doubles play, and had three undefeated singles players; Seniors Jim Levy and Captain Peter Eckel and Junior Rob Dowling.

Spurred on by the team motto "Good Heavens man, don't baby the ball, takitlikaman", Coach Jonathon Miller's squad of veteran athletes showed amazing maturity, poise and aplomb.

Next year's squad will be saddled with the responsibility of maintaining the fine tradition passed on by these young men and will be hardpressed to extend the current victory streak established by them.

In their second year of competition the Cleveland Heights Hockey Team, coached by Nick Wren and assistant Jim Like, raced to a 10-6-2 record, good for fourth place in the East Division Greated Cleveland Hockey League. The icers, captained by Del Geller, had excellent personnel, including East Division All-Stars Mike Johnson, Kelly Rice, and Bill Phillips. Most of the team's games were played at the Cleveland Heights Recreational Pavilion.

Highlights of the season included the consolation trophy at the Thornton Park Invitational Tournament and several hard-fought contests in the Garfield Heights Tournament. Supervisor Dave Ganley summed up the season as "A helluva year."

Fine individual performances were overshadowed this season as the Heights wrestling team finished the year with a dismal record of one win and eleven losses. Senior captain Murray Davis wound up the season with a duel meet record of 10-1-1. Davis was Heights' only state qualifier as he swept through sectional and districts before losing in the district final. Noticeable efforts included those of Al Stallworth, Lou Balcher, and Mike Bryan, as they too qualified for district competition. With the return of Balcher, Bryan, Thor Zednik, Jim Weir, and others, Joe Geiger's matmen should have a promising future and many more victories.

J.V. Basketball Team: Row One - B. Klein, S. Katzel, B. Finnie, B. Straus, G. Balogh, T. Endres, J. Thompson, D. Bashinsky (mgr.). Row Two - P. Mendelson, (statistician), L. Skimin (mgr.), M. Eclipsing the efforts of last year's team, this year's cagers put it all together as they captured the first L.E.L. title for Heights in ten years. Aggressiveness and outstanding team play characterized this year's squad as they finished the year with a 17-1 conference mark and set a school record of 16 straight wins.

Dennis Greenwald was the leading scorer for the tigers this year with an average of 17 points per game. The big men up front for Heights this year were Leicester Stovell and Tony Norman. Together these two accounted for 418 rebounds and averaged 25 points a game. The backcourt tandem of Don Heard and Dave Schafer played excellent ball at both ends of the court and were known for their quickness and overall play.

Selected for Most Valuable Player in the league was Heights star Dennis Greenwald. Joining him on the all L.E.L. team were Norman and Stovell. These three players, in addition to Rick Denton, were singled out for their play by both Cleveland newspapers.

Senior co-captains Rick Fleeter and Ron Wolf, along with top season scorer Mike Esch, led the swim team to a very close 6-7 record. Many of the meets came down to the last event, including both the one point wins over Shaker and Midpark and losses to Berea and Firestone. Versatility was called for as the team compensated for its small size and lack of depth. Senior Tom Petot switched strokes to become a sprint freestyler and several promising sophomores gained varsity experience in filling out the line-up. The best individual performance was made by junior Ray Hachen who qualified for the state meet and posted his best time in the 400 yard freestyle in the Colombus meet. With Ray and several other swimmers returning, and many prospective freshmen coming up, the outlook is hopeful for next year.

The letter H which is given to the outstanding athletes at Heights stands for long hours of practice and participation in sports events. It is considered among the highest of honors an athlete can receive. The H-Club and the Yellow Jackets are both clubs which were formed in honor of those students who are physically fit enough to accept the challenges of interscholastic sports.

The Athletic Service Club came into existence because of the need for students to collect tickets and punch activity passes at home football and basketball games. Although this club stays behind the scenes, it is essential to the sports activities of the school.

For girls who desired to actively participate in sports, Girls Athletic Association provided the answer. Activities sponsored by GAA included: Intramurals, interscholastics, swim cadets, gym cadets, officials club, swim club, tennis club, and yellow jackets. The gym cadets continued to perform a vital and invaluable service to the Phys. Ed. department.

GAA Executive Board: (L. to R.) B. Davis, S. Ernest, B. Drake, N. Barrett, S. Schwarz, W. Negus, B. Farmer, S. Little.

Two Field hockey players vie for the ball.

Officiating during the intramural games was the responsibility of the Official's Club. The girls attended morning sessions to learn the skills necessary to referee. Next year Official's Club will be combined with Gym Cadets to form one organization. Swim Timers supported the swim team by starting cheers at the meets as well as by making signs. The girls timed the events, kept track of scoring, posted times and ran the scoreboard.

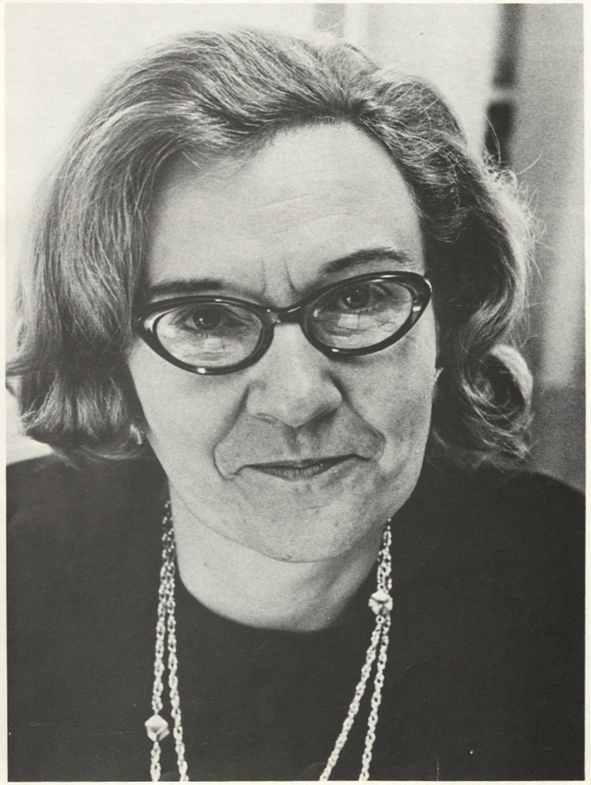
ACADEMICS

Superintendent of Schools — Dr. David Moberly

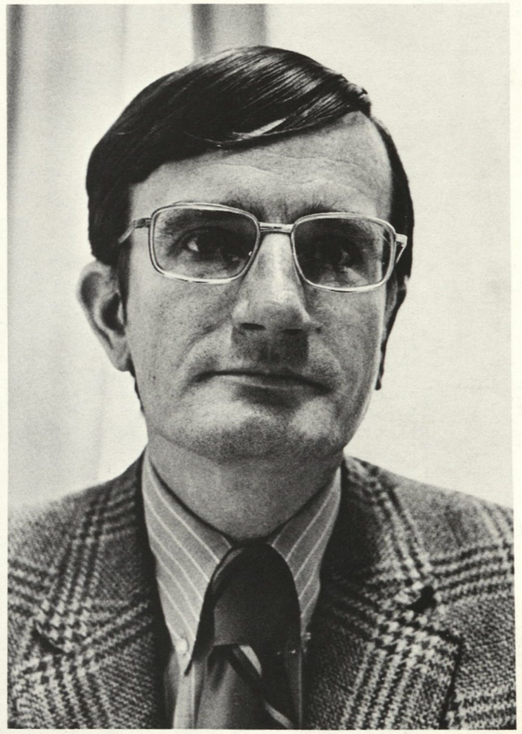
The changing image of the administration was brought about by the addition of Miss Bernice Van Sickle and Dr. David Moberly. Miss Van Sickle became the assistant principal in charge of the curriculum and supervision. Taking over the post of superintendent of the Cleveland Heights-University Heights school system was Dr. Moberly. Working with the new administrators were principal James O'Toole, assistant to the principal Edwin Gally and the school board.

School Board — seated: Dr. Theodore Rall, Robert Apple, Mrs. Sherman Dye. Standing: Jonathan Collens, Norman Weiss.

Principal — James O'Toole

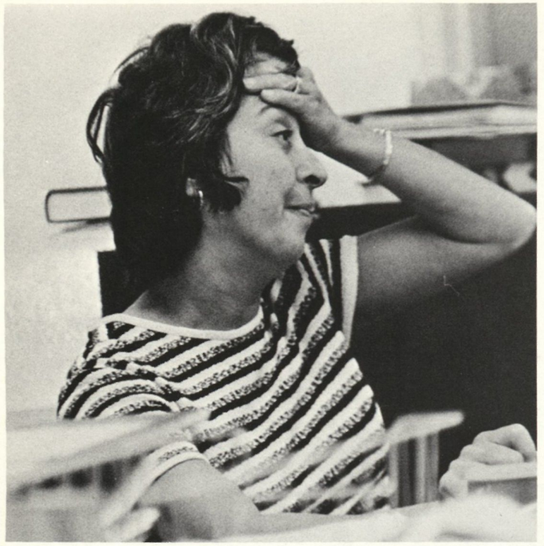


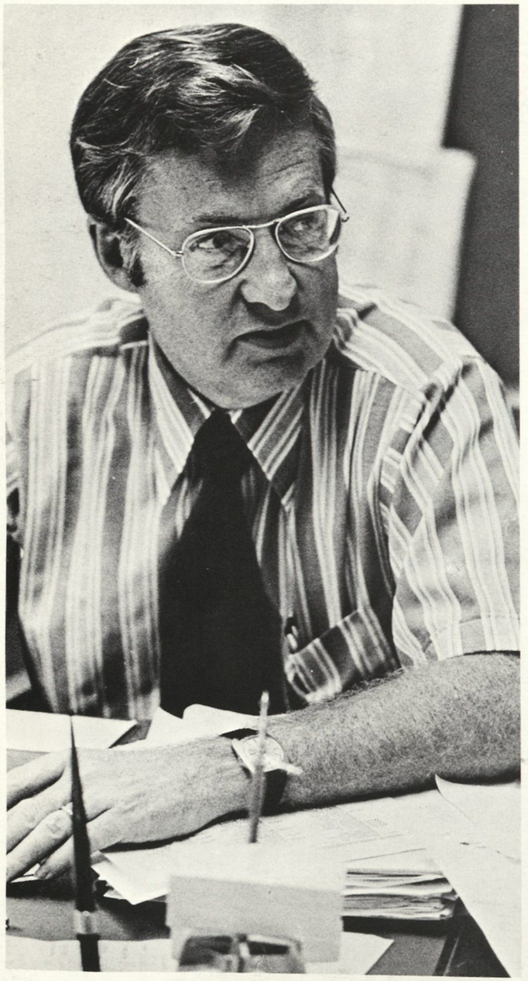
Assistant Principal — Miss Bernice Van Sickle



Enthused Mr. Gally.

Secretary succumbs to confusion in unit office.





Mr. Paul J. Wiseley — Unit B Principal

Mr. John Farinacci — Unit C Principal

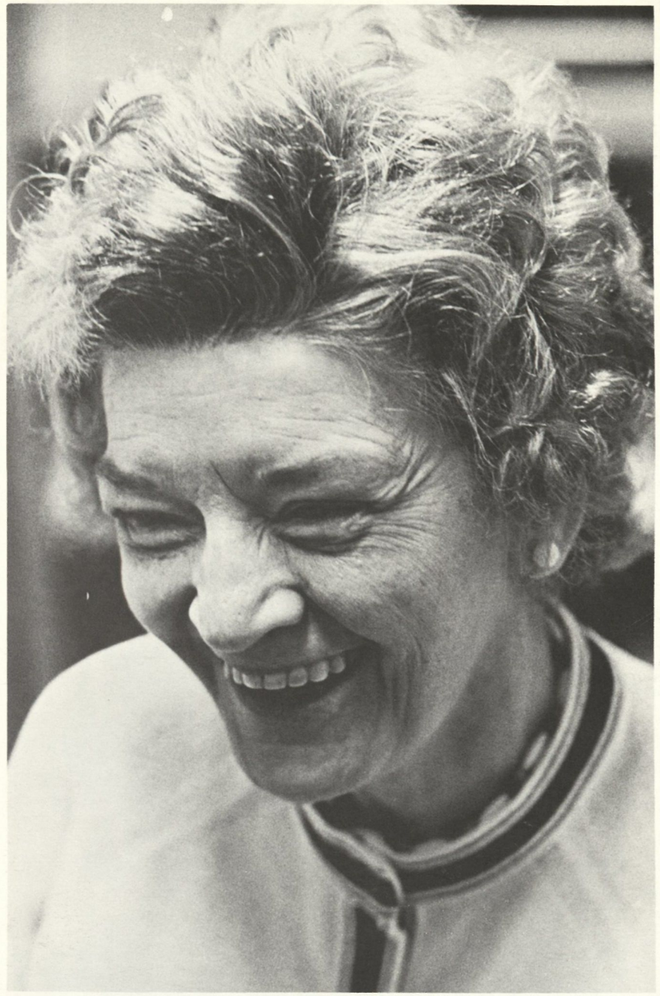
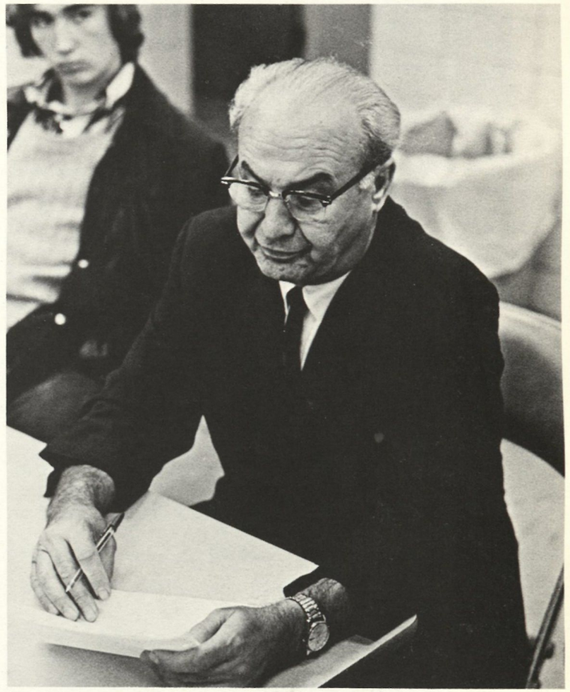
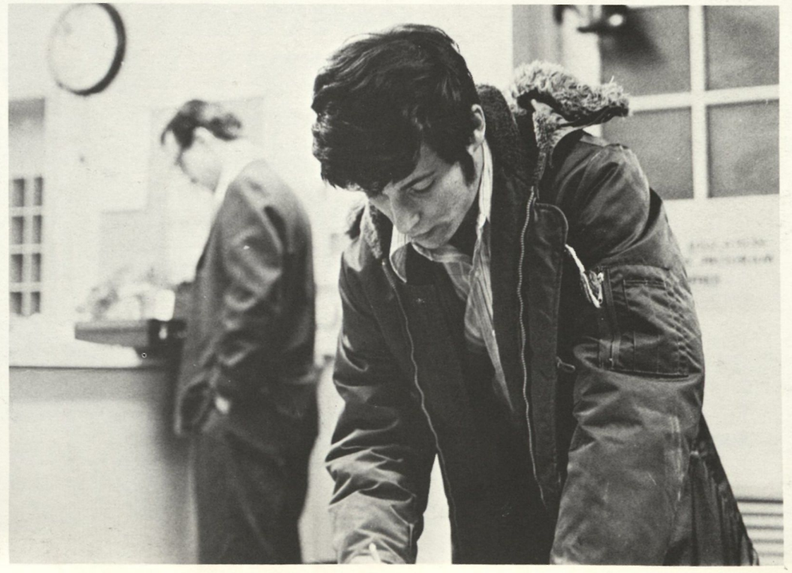
Miss Mary H. Ryan — Unit A Principal



Reorganization of the units achieved three schools within a school. A smaller school with a more personal atmosphere proved to be the major philosophy of the change. Plans for the future include different instructional programs and entirely separate activities for each of the three units.





. . . Marc Lipman signing into unit office.

Dropping their image as troubleshooters, the counselors have widened their basic guidence duties. They have participated in various student related activities such as curriculum evaluation, vocational education planning, and drug workshops. Their final goal is hopefully a broader understanding of the student and his needs from the guidance standpoint and providing students with better and more efficient counseling services.

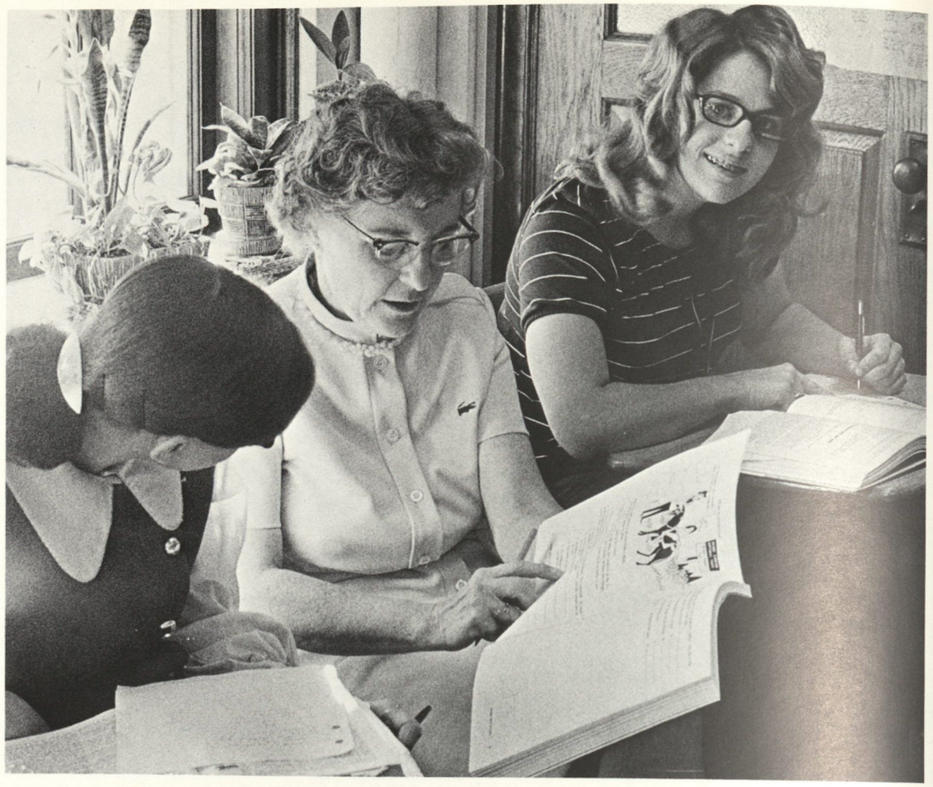
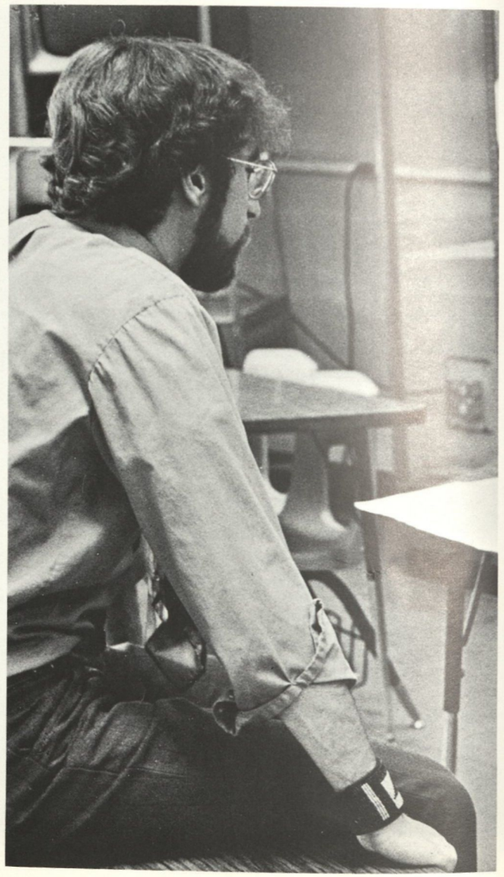
Expecting Heights to be more of a challenge the student teachers were surprised to find it much like any other high school. Many found the atmosphere friendly and their students very intelligent, but wished they could spend more time at Heights and less time with their college studies.

Mrs. Millikan and students.



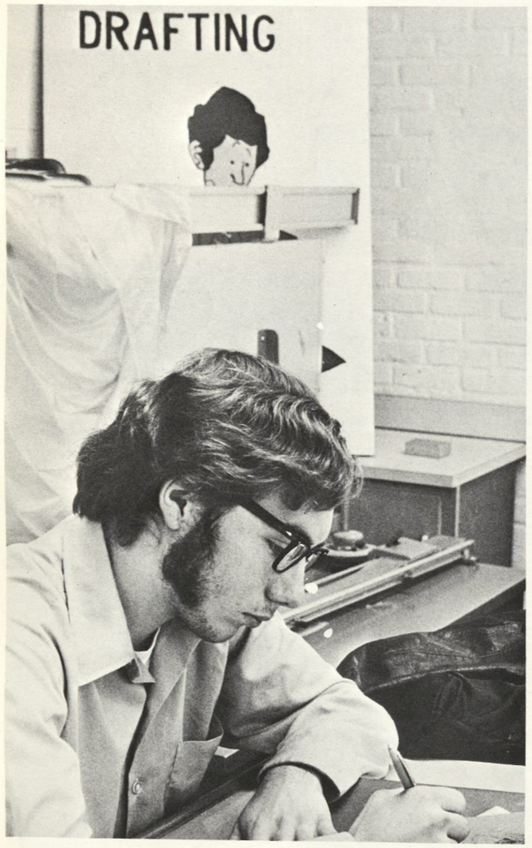
Pursuing traditional courses of study and the Flex program, special education students found enlightenment in adaptive English Classes.

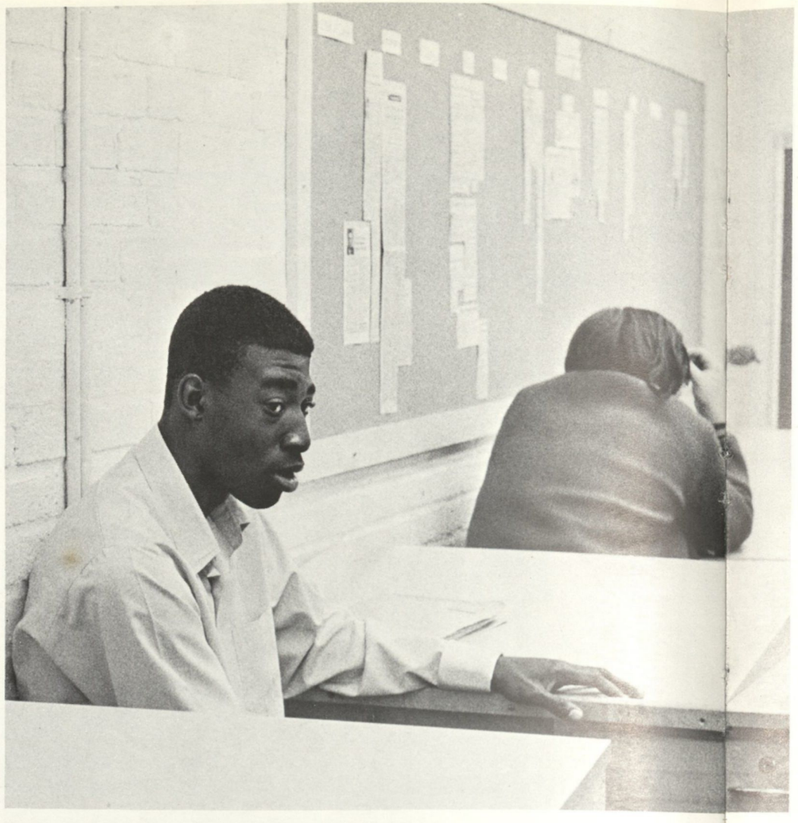
Communication in impaired hearing classes was simplified by the use of the audio amplifier. Finger spelling among students also facilitated class interaction. In regular classes, note-taking by other students let special education program students concentrate on lip-reading.



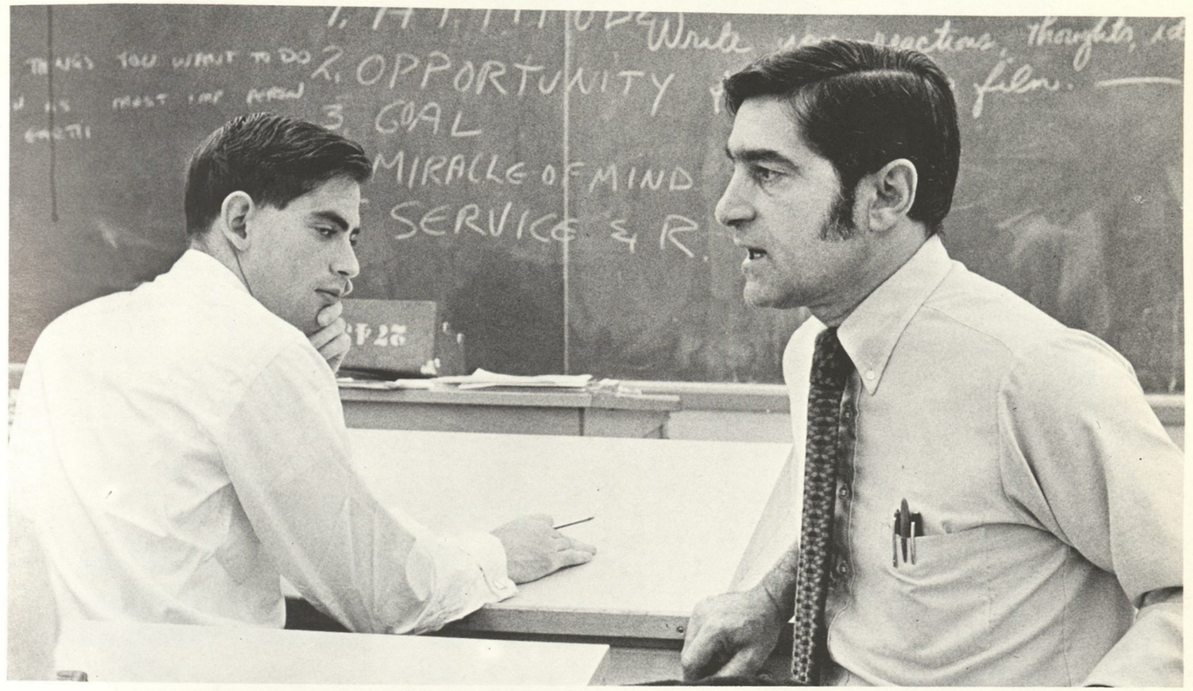
Mr. Treuhaft.

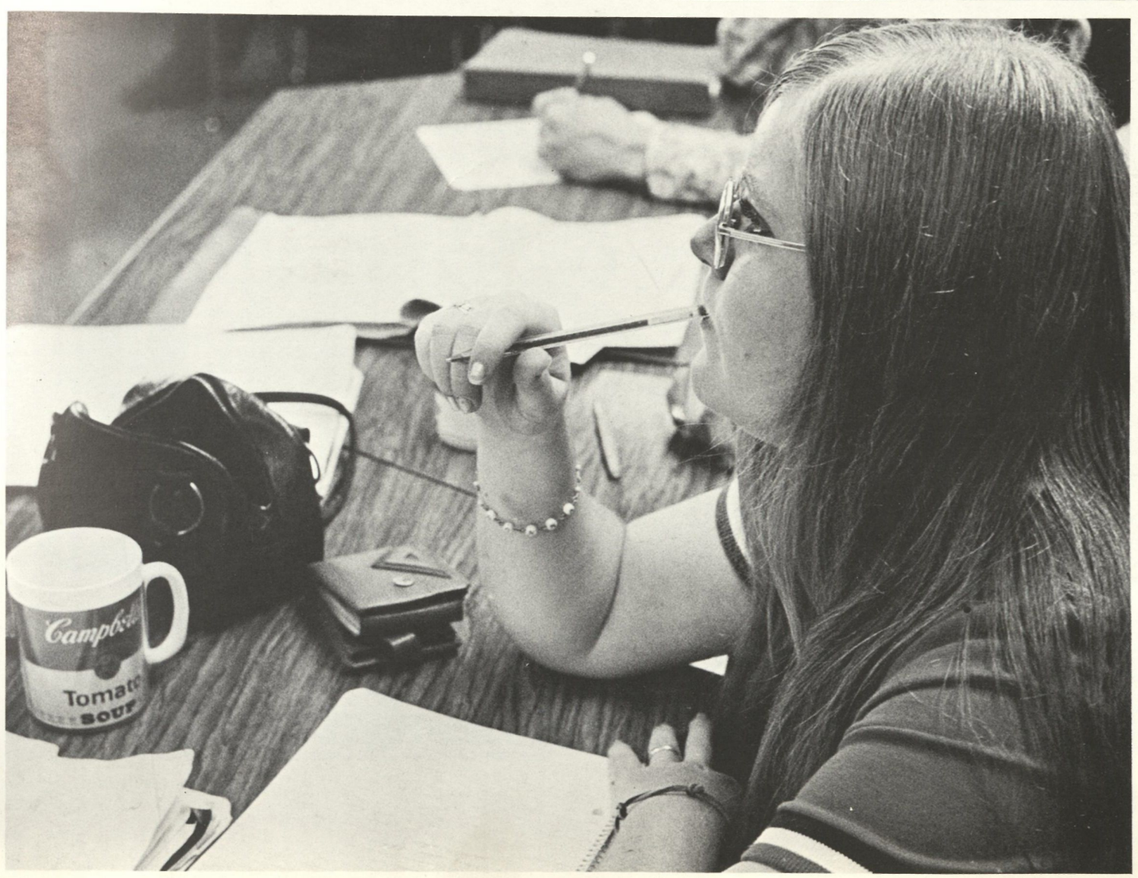
Distributive Education students had the opportunity to hold a part-time job in their field of interest while they attended classes at Heights. The students' practical work experiences gave them a headstart in finding their place in the job world.



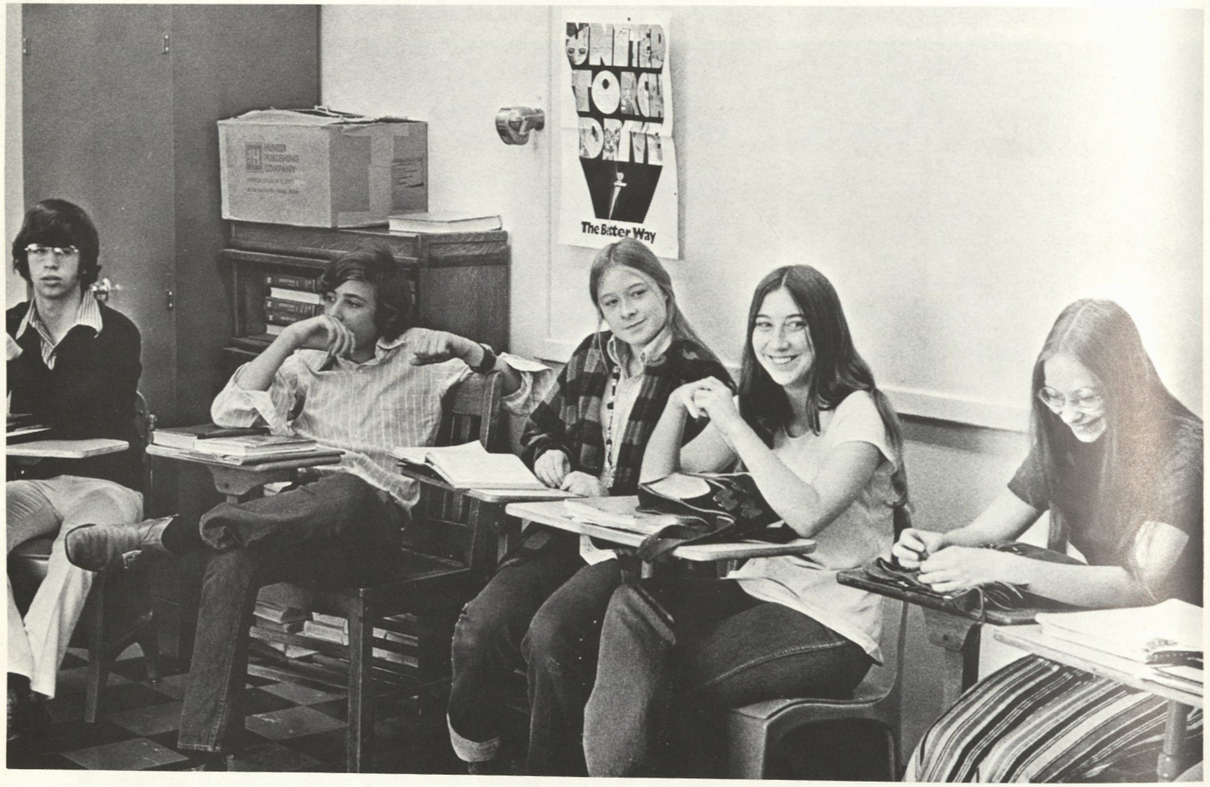


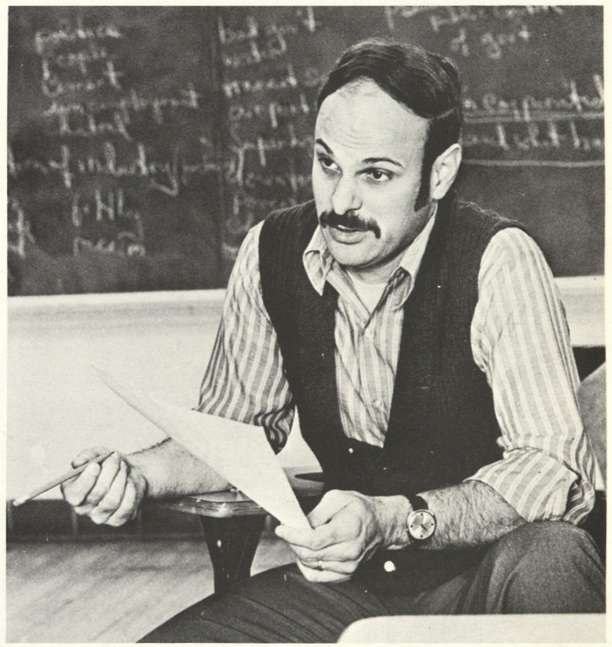
Mr. Ferrato, Occupational Work Experience advisor.





Mrs. Gerstung (below) and Sue Cohen (right) bring the concept of English and World History together in the tenth grade Fusion.

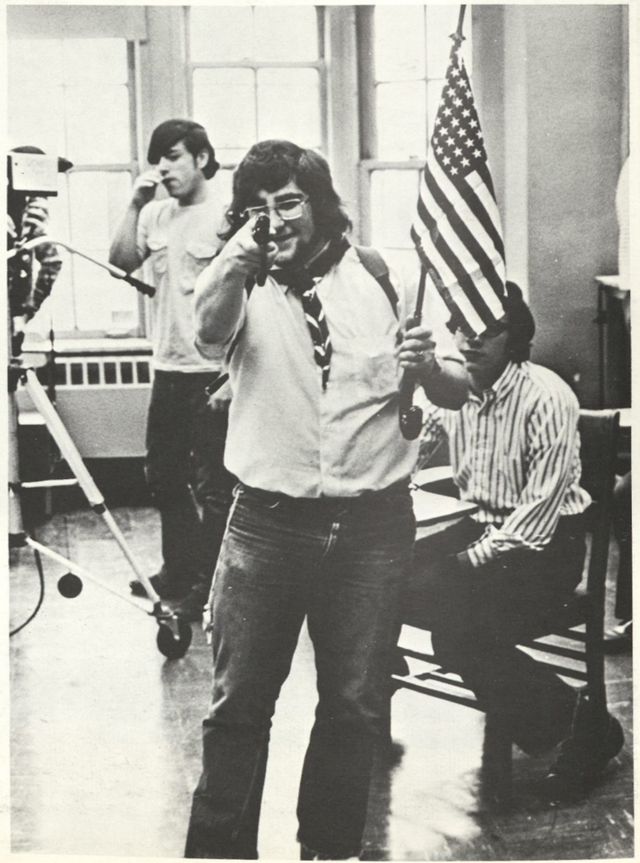




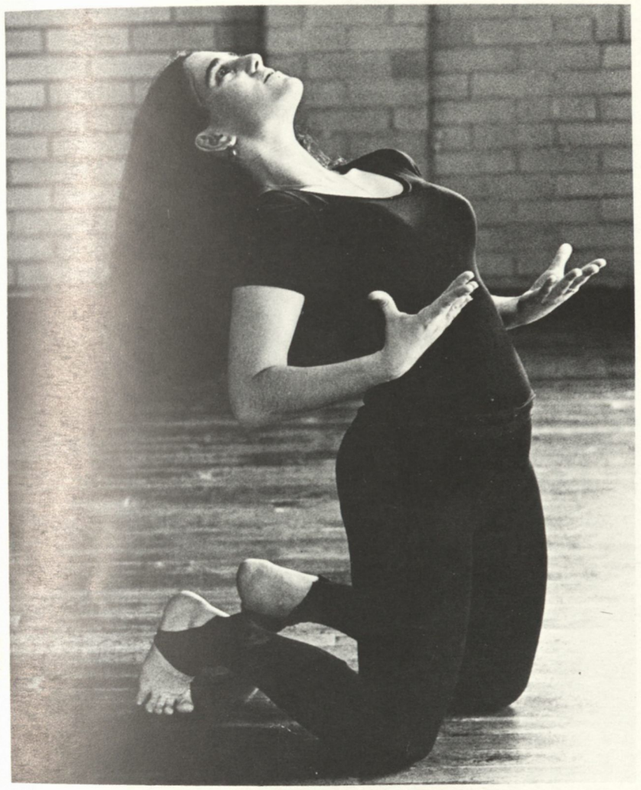
This year the Flexible Program expanded to include 250 students and eight teachers who devote part of their teaching time each day. To insure stability attempts are being made to group the students under the supervision of one guidence counselor. Hopefully, math and science credits will be added to the program next year.

Mr. Krause loads his camera for moviemaking.

The Alternative English and the Independent Study Programs share a common bond of providing personalized education. Seniors may choose from a potpourri of courses from Chaucer to Black Literature in the English program. The Independent Study Program enables a student or group of students to pursue individual interests with the help of an advisor. Selections are unlimited and choices range from dancing projects and photo essays to conventional history reports.



Relating emotions to dance is the topic of Leslie Felbain's Independent study project.



Miss Franklin, director of Independent Study.

Idealistically, the Library and Media Center offered students a place where they could find reference material for various school projects. However, most students saw the library as a place where they could meet friends or do homework.

I do my thing and you do your thing.
I am not in this world to live up to your expectations.
And you are not in this world to live up to mine.
You are you and I am I
And if by chance we find each other,
It's beautiful.

In Memory of a Friend
There are certain feelings
That defy expression in mere words
For one who gave so much
To those who loved him.
We will never forget
The one who smiled.

No doubt it has been a difficult year, but now the 1972 Caldron is yours to be praised, criticized, or just overlooked. The staff was small and sales were down, but we still managed to produce an accurate representation of the school. The staff spent time organizing individual pages. Our photographers roamed the halls of Heights to take candids of the students. They attended numerous meetings, sports events, and musical concerts so that we could show you the students and their various activities. Mr. Salvator, our advisor, helped us immensely. Under the capable leadership of Mr. Sztul, the business staff balanced our budget and helped to distribute the completed book. Six student artists did the unique drawings on our divider pages. Bill Lahman did all of the pictures in the introduction. Marsha Solomon, our underclass editor, was indispensable as a typist and as an assistant editor. She offered her opinion freely and was able to help whenever we needed her. As the 1972 Caldron editors, we had a most unforgettable experience. We just hope that you get as much out of the book as we have.
